The parade is traditionally covered by newsprint and radio broadcast. Please include on a separate sheet any information (unit's history, information about participants, and other public appearances) that could be used in a broadcast if you are selected as a participant.

Because a parade is defined by its color and glitz, we strongly encourage anyone who will appear in the parade to do so in appropriate costumes. Also, please note that your unit is required to carry signage that will identify the sponsor.

We are always interested in new ideas and potential participants. If you know of anyone who may be interested, please list their name and phone number so that we might contact them. Thank-you!

Check the Heritage Festival Website or the Ypsilanti Jaycees website at www.ypsilantijaycees.com for up to date information on the parade including the Parade line up (will be posted by August 16, 2010).

The participants shall indemnify and hold the Ypsilanti Heritage Festival and the Ypsilanti Area Jaycees free and harmless from any and all liability, claims, loss, damage or expenses, including attorney fees arising by reason of any death, injury or property damage sustained by any person caused or allegedly caused by any negligent or intentional act of the participant, or by the participant's failure to perform any covenant, term, condition or act required by this agreement.

I understand that as a parade participant I am responsible for providing my own insurance.

I also understand that the Heritage Festival reserves the right to remove your entry from the parade if your unit is misrepresented between the application and the start of the parade.

I also represent that I am authorized to sign this document on behalf of my organization.
